Order No. 7 Dated 31st January, 2026.

Mr. Banerjee, learned Senior Counsel appearing for NCC has submitted one application, praying for dismissal of the above complaint no. 9 (OMB) of 2025. He has also submitted reply used by National Cricket Club (NCC) to the written response submitted by CAB.

Let both the aforesaid documents be kept with the records.

It is clarified that the application of NCC for dismissal of the above complaint of the complainant is taken up for hearing along with the complaint of the complainant.

It is pointed out that there is a common issue regarding allotment of tickets to NCC by CAB in both the complaints being Case No. 9 (OMB) of 2025 (Mr. Madhusudan Das Mundhra & Ors. – Complainants ) and the complaint no. 1 (OMB) of 2026 ( Mr. Prabhat Jhawar –Complainant). It is also pointed out that in the complaint of Mridul Beria (Case No. 13 (OMB) of 2025), incidentally the same question which is involved in those proceedings, will also be addressed. Accordingly, all the above three proceedings which are heard today on the above issue, will also be heard on 3rd February, 2026 at 9 p.m. at Bengal Club, at Room No. 150.

CAB is directed to communicate this order to all concerned, at the earliest.
